Customer Reviews

These stories are told a Jewish however they could in most cases be applied to any group of people as they are not religious in nature. Each story seems to be very real and has a lesson buried in it. A lot can be learned from reading this fun book and the art is very good too.

I've recently enjoyed reading these charming stories to my son for our bed time routine. The stories are usually long enough to put him to sleep, but not so long that my throat is sore. They're fun stories with some morals to share with your kids. Recommended.

This book is read over and over to my children. The morals and lessons taught are great. It is even a great read for the adults. It is a book worth having.
