Customer Reviews

This is a great book for little children. I've read it for my daughter several times and she has really enjoyed it. It's an exciting story for the little ones, but it also has something to say for the older children. In conclusion, it's a well illustrated, well written book.

My little boy loves this book. The illustrations are great and the story is great for bedtime. My wife and I try to read books that have lessons integrated into the story, and this one does a nice job of combining entertainment with the lesson.

This is a beautiful Elephant story which kids would love to listen to. The two friends started drawing and had a lot of fun. They laughed how Eddie would draw a dog and Charlie would draw something that more looked like a bear than a dog. After a few hours of trying and trying, Charlie saw that he wasn't as good as Eddie at drawing. Eddie the fox would draw a straight line and Charlie the elephant would draw a slightly curved one.

This book is for children, but not for very small ones, not for 2-year olds. It has an interesting story with a demanding, but well-chosen vocabulary. It even had a philosophical touch to the story, in my opinion. This is definitely the book to buy if you want your child to engage in thinking abstractly from a very young age.

My kids love the books which have attractive illustrations with especially with a lovely story too so I have purchased this illustrated book with a nice elephant story that kids enjoy and I have been pleased with it. If you are looking for children's picture books for kids, or bedtime story books for kids of all ages then you can choose this one and you will be happy with the choice.
