Customer Reviews

This book is the second book in this series that we have read. They are great books that children will love to have read to them again and again, and they will love playing with as they use the hand puppets. My 5 year-old can read it to the younger children, and the younger children love the finger puppets. It is amazing that the 6 pages in the little board book can be read so often and yet still be asked for so often. You use the finger puppets to point to the words and to the animals and items it is a great learning tool. Babies love the reflective spoon. My 3 children from 5 years to 10 months all love this book!

This is a great book to keep little ones entertained! It's the perfect size for small hands and is easy to pack in any diaper bag. There are lots of different titles to choose from, so you will definitely want to buy more than one!

Love this book and puppet show! Perfect gift for new parents and new baby as it entertains and promotes fun and bonding. It's become a favorite for my little boy as he studies the puppets and associates the rhymes with the book!

Bought this book because my daughter loved her Old MacDonald book. This one was received with a hole in the glove. I decided not to return it because it's not worth the hassle. Otherwise the product is cute.

My 5 month old grandson enjoys them whether it's my hand in the puppets or the hand of his 4 year old sister. Fun for all of us.

I needed things small enough to bring on the plane for my 17 month old son. Perfect size and he loves this nursery rhyme.

This is a great addition to the diaper bag for quick entertainment on the go. My daughter loves to see the fingers/characters move as you sing the song. Would definitely recommend this product!

My infant loves this! Its the second one we bought because she was in love with the first one! Pages are sturdy and animals are cute!
