Ok so im an agk fan boy its a great manga to me. This volume was very good theres funny moments, and sad moments from backstories and etc it ended off on a good spot when the QUEEN! Returns home:) cant wait for volume 3

Akame ga KILL continues to impress the reader with the character development and all of the horror elements mixed within. Tatsumi finally learns about the Teigu (powerful weapons that were created by the first emperor). Night Raid consist of users with Teigu, but Tatsumi does not have one yet and tries to prove himself by facing a duel with an opponent that is on another level than Tatsumi himself. Tatsumi gets to learn from this encounter that the people that he will now face will be a true "life or death" battle where any mistake will cost him his life. There will be one character that may make you very angry at the end of this volume, so make sure you read through. I was pretty pissed

I got the first and second volume of this manga and I was really happy with both. The story is cool and the characters are great. I would recommend it.

Another solid volume if you a fan of the series pick it up since for one it will have a better ending than the anime and second this manga is not the best selling. If you know anything about the anime and manga industry you should know it is a hard living so support the author if you can.

Good manga love it!
