Hebrews: Race To Glory (Lifeguide Bible Studies)

Synopsis

"What's the use?" At times of frustration or disappointment, it is tempting to ask this question. You work and work to grow to Christian maturity, but you seem to get nowhere--repeating your mistakes, neglecting your commitments, losing your motivation. The original readers of Hebrews felt the same way! Yet the writer of this New Testament letter cheers for them to stay on track and never quit, so they can reach the finish line by the power of Jesus Christ. As James Reapsome leads you through thirteen studies in Hebrews, he offers you--and all of today's faith-weary Christians--the encouragement you need to stay in the faith-race. This LifeGuide Bible Study in IVP's revised format features questions for starting group discussions and for meeting God in personal reflection, as well as a new "Now or Later" section following each session to help you act on what you learn.

Customer Reviews

My friends and I worked the this Hebrews Bible study and found it to be very thorough and thought provoking. When we first read through some of the questions, we thought they sounded a little ridiculous. We decided to do them anyway, and found that those were the questions that taught us the most. This book presents a nice balance of historical facts and current life applications. Reapsome delves deep into the book, and helps us understand what we personally need to take from Hebrews to be better children of God.

I have used Lifeguide Bible Studies in the past. This one for Hebrews is not as in-dept as other books of the Bible. I have completed five chapters to date and even my friend who is doing this study with me says it doesn't require much thought to answer the questions.

I think its a good way to get you thinking more about what you are reading. I'd recommend writing your answers in a note book verse the book itself. That way you can do a topic with more than one person & share the book. The questions are towards common Christian beliefs and in simple for, not for those who are more schooled in the bible.
