A Study of the Messiah and His Mission according to Holy Scriptures both Ancient and Modern by James E. Talmage One of the Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints 1922
The scope of the subject presented in this work is expressed on the title page. It will be readily seen that the author has departed from the course usually followed by writers on the Life of Jesus Christ, which course, as a rule, begins with the birth of Mary's Babe and ends with the ascension of the slain and risen Lord from Olivet. The treatment embodied in these pages, in addition to the narrative of the Lord's life in the flesh comprizes the antemortal existence and activities of the world's Redeemer, the revelations and personal manifestations of the glorified and exalted Son of God during the apostolic period of old and in modern times, the assured nearness of the Lord's second advent, and predicted events beyond "all so far as the Holy Scriptures make plain.

James Edward Talmage (1862-1933) was a member of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormons) from 1911 until his death in 1933. This book was originally written in 1915. He writes in the Preface, "It will be readily seen that the author has departed from the course usually followed by writers on the Life of Jesus Christ, which course, as a rule, begins with the birth of Mary's Babe and ends with the ascension of the slain and risen Lord from Olivet. The treatment embodied in these pages, in addition to the narrative of the Lord's Life in the flesh, comprises the antemortal existence and activities of the world's Redeemer, the revelations and personal manifestations of the glorified and exalted Son of God during the apostolic period of old and in modern times, the assured nearness of the Lord's second advent, and predicted events beyond---all so far as the Holy Scriptures make plain." Here are some quotations from the book (page numbers are from the 746-page 1983 Deseret Books paperback edition): "Mormonism' accepts the doctrine of the fall... but it affirms that none but Adam is or shall be answerable for Adam's disobedience..." (Pg. 29) "That Child to be born of Mary was begotten of Elohim, the Eternal Father, not in violation of natural law but in accordance with a higher manifestation thereof." (Pg. 77) "(W)e believe Christ to have been born in the year known to us as B.C. 1..." (Pg. 97) "Among these extra-Biblical scriptures, the following may be named: ... a missing epistle of Paul to the Corinthians (1 Cor 5:9); a missing epistle to the Ephesians (Eph 3:3); a missing epistle to the Colossians, written from Laodicea (Col 4:16); a missing epistle of Jude (Jude 3)."
