Customer Reviews

LOVE this coloring book. It looks simple but once you start coloring you realize that this is not the case! I am having so much fun with either my new set of jewel tone markers or watercolor pencils. I recommend this for anyone who loves to color, wants a calming activity and enjoys Judaic designs. I plan to buy as gifts too.

The cheapest paper...i tried coloring with small tipped crayola markers & the paper started coming apart. Should print on better paper for customer to be able to work with it.

Bought this as a gift and was impressed, as was the recipient, with the level of difficulty (varied) and the appearance of the coloring pages. Adult coloring is supposed to help with stress reduction, anxiety, and even spiritual focus. Adding the Jewish dimension to the meditative work of coloring kicks things up a notch.

This is such a lovely book! I used it with my religious school children and they loved it! We'll be using them as part of our Chanukah decorations!

Pictures are beautiful! Love that it goes in order of the calendar year. Even my 6th graders are enjoying. Quotes are moving!

Beautiful pictures! The paper is nice and very thick so there isn't a lot of bleed through when I use my Sharpies/Bic's. But I do take the pages out of the book first just in case. The only two complaints I have are that I wish it was perforated to make taking the pages out easier, and that the lovely sayings were on the back of the picture they went with not the facing page. I would definitely recommend buying this book.

I like it better than the other book I ordered, but , the drawings are still too busy...too much really small area to fill in. Most older folks do not have vision good enough to color a lot of these pages.

The coloring book is nice. I will get another one after I finish the one I have now
