I really, really like Really Woolly Bedtime Prayers board book. It's sweet rhyming passages and short prayers are perfect to sharing and teaching about the love of God with your little ones. Nothing complicated or time consuming at all. There are nineteen devotion/prayers in this board book, each one takes up a 2-page spread. Each section starts with an easy to memorize bible verse, followed by a sweet rhyming devotional poem, and ends with a simple prayer. Topics are: 1. The Shepherd Listens 2. The Shepherd Loves 3. The Shepherd Smiles 4. The Shepherd Watches 5. The Shepherd Rescues 6. The Shepherd Cares 7. The Shepherd Sings 8. The Shepherd Teaches 9. The Shepherd

Guides10. The Shepherd Blesses11. The Shepherd Encourages12. The Shepherd Understands13. The Shepherd Shines14. The Shepherd Forgives15. The Shepherd Comforts16. The Shepherd Chooses17. The Shepherd Promises18. The Shepherd Plans19. The Shepherd CreatesThere is also a Note to Parents in the beginning of the book.My 6YO son and I enjoy reading at least one page from this book at night to finish off our bible time together. It's a reminder of God's loving, faithful ways before going to sleep at night and a wonderful introduction to prayer. This has become a family favorite and a keeper.PS: While Jesus is the theme of this book, he is referred to as The Shepherd and not by his name. His name is only mentioned in the Note to Parents in the beginning. The devotions either use God or The Shepherd.

Got this for my 2 year old for Easter and she loves it. The prayers are short and sweet and to the point. I love that it rhymes and is a board book so she can't rip it up or get it wet or dirty. I would recommend this for anyone interested in getting a toddler into prayer.

Really sweet little book, easy to understand for my 3-yr-old and focuses on the positive, even when addressing things like fears. The board book pages mean she can "read" it by herself and the short little prayers are easy for her to memorize her favorites.

Five star ratingBefore your newborn arrives, the child knows your voice. Really Woolly Bedtime Prayers is a great way to begin to read and pray with your child before you receive your child into your arms.It will become part of a natural progression to share with your newborn child and continue sharing it through the toddler years and beyond.Chances are the book may accompany your child into adolescence and maturity even though it's design is for younger readers. It may be the foundation upon which a love for scripture is built. The eloquent simplicity of God's messages will be cherished and clearly understood. It is quite possible this small treasure will instill a sense of yearning to hear more of God's word through scripture, prayer and meditation throughout a lifetime..

Our son recd this book as a gift on his baptism day. We loved it so much that we purchased another one for our nephew. Dayspring is such a great brand! This book is a softer covered board book with prayers on each page. Each prayer is relevant & has a scripture verse to go with it. The illustrations are cute as well. I plan to purchase more books in this series.

I've bought this book for many shower and baptism baby gifts. The illustrations are beautiful and the prayers include a Bible reference. I used to read one of these to my children each night, and now that they are older they pick their own and read it to me.

This book is so neat. It has little passages from the bible about comfort, love etc. and then it has a little rhyming poem to accompany the passage, and at the end a prayer about what that page covered.

Beautifully written book, completely age appropriate (for my toddler). The pages and prayers are short and simple, and not hideously repetitive or cheesy. This book was referred to me by a friend who reads this to her child nightly, and has incorporated it into their bedtime routine. I would purchase this book for other parents in need of simple prayers to teach their child.
